5000 YEARS OF BLACK HISTORY IN ONE NIGHT AT THE THEATRE

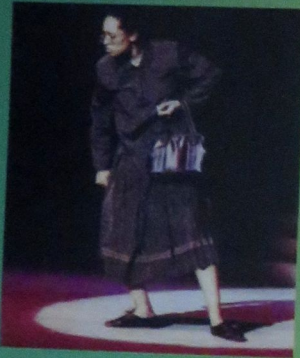

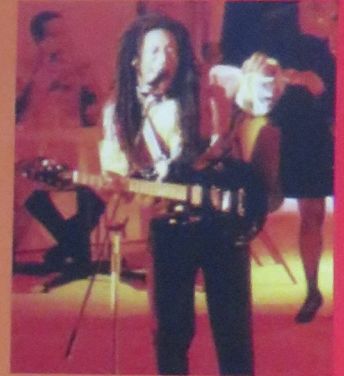

BLACK HEROES IN THE HALL OF FAME

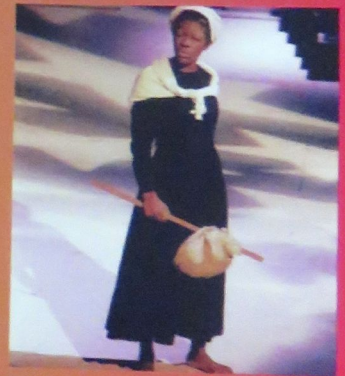

First launched in 1987 by Camden Council as a Community Arts project to celebrate the centenary of Marcus Garvey, BLACK HEROES IN THE HALL OF FAME is a live musical pageant that has proven to be a good argument for promoting positive race relations and has shown audiences in Britain, USA and the Caribbean what Black people have achieved.

Now 20 years later, as Britain celebrates the bicentenary of the Abolition of Slavery, the production continues to be the perfect vehicle to remind the world, and especially the youth, just how much there is still left to accomplish in today's multicultural society.

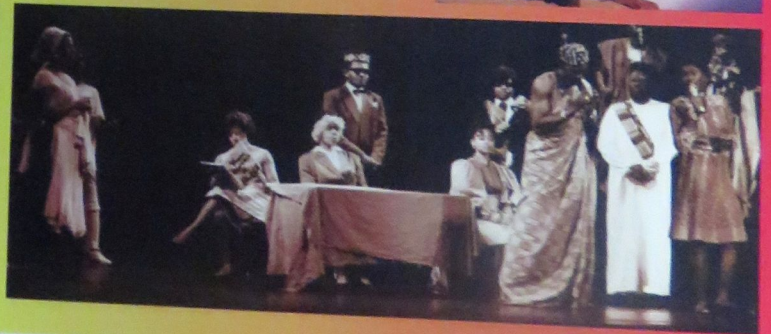

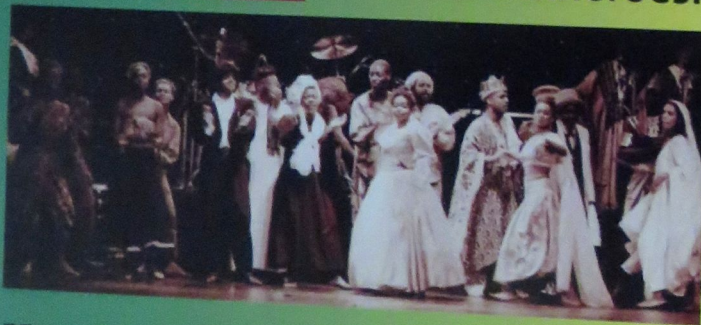

For more than two and a half hours the cast of over 40 singers, dancers, actors and musicians will provide a magical explosion of culture and excitement that will motivate, inspire, educate and entertain the entire family.

A 'must see' show, BLACK HEROES IN THE HALL OF FAME music is guaranteed to entertain diverse audiences of all races and ages.
