

DEED and Louisa Adjoa Parker present

Dorset's Hidden Histories Exhibition

This travelling exhibition uses photos, archives, interviews, poetry, books and film to tell the stories of black people of African and Caribbean heritage who have lived in, or travelled through Dorset, including Bournemouth and Poole, from the 17th century to the present day.

It costs £325 to hire for up to 2 weeks. The price includes delivery and set up by DEED staff and a workshop by the exhibition's researcher and published poet and author, Louisa Adjoa Parker.

"... spontaneous feedback from both staff and service users... included... 'fascinating;' 'fantastic;' 'very well presented' and something that they would like to see again"
Equalities Worker, Dorset NHS Trust

"Miss Belle Davis and her Pickchicks"
Weymouth, Jubilee Hall
6th - 12th August 1917

Image reproduced courtesy of Rainer E Lotz

Produced as part of the Black History in Dorset Project

Available to hire from DEED

Training, workshops and resources also available

For further details please contact

DEED on 01202 739422 or email info@deed.org.uk

Supported by

The National Lottery®
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Heritage
Lottery Fund