

Commemorating the Bicentenary of the Abolition of the Slave Trade Scottish National Ecumenical Service : June 16 2007.

Information

The Centre will be open to the public from 10.00 hours.

Programme of Events

Marquee

12.30 hours	Scottish Churches' Racial Justice Conference Speaker : Rev. Arlington Trotman, formerly Secretary of the Churches' Commission on Racial Justice.
13.30	A series of Short Talks on Scotland & Slavery by Prof Geoff Palmer, Ms Kukomo Rocks & Rev Iain Whyte.
14.30	Performances by the Glasgow Gospel Choir and Hamilton Salvation Army Band.
15.00 - 16.15	Scottish National Ecumenical Service
16.15 - 16.45	Glasgow Gospel Choir and Hamilton Citadel Salvation Army Band.

Grounds

13.30 - 14.30 Workshops (such as African drumming) and performances will take place.

Africa Pavilion

From 13.30 Stalls and National Trust for Scotland Displays

Preparing for the Service

Please make your way to the Victoria Room within Shuttle Row by 14.15. You will be escorted to your seat in the marquee shortly before 15.00.

The Service is expected to last for approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes, after which refreshments will be served, and you will have an opportunity to visit the Livingstone museum.