

African Remembrance Day '06

Saturday 22 July 06 | 12 - 7pm
Hackney Town Hall
Mare St, E8

Admission free

Debate | Films | Performances | Photography | Stalls | Cultural Food

ligali equality for African people

INSAKA
MOVEMENT FOR AFRICANISATION

A day of positive edutainment dedicated to remembering our ancestors who have fought and died for self-determination, justice and social revolution and the African people and culture lost through enslavement, colonialism and racism.

Admission free (donations welcome)
Film starts promptly at 12.30 pm

Cultural food and refreshments will be available For further information call 020 8986 1984 or visit www.ligali.org/africanremembrance

CYBERKITCHEN

The Community Network
Hackney

Neighbourhood
Partnership Unit

Information
Action Network for the voluntary sector
ICVS

maafa remembering the enslaved 2007

Now Nation

With screenings of the award winning films;
500 Years Later
Winner of the Best Documentary Award,
Pan-African Film Festival 2005

A Great and Mighty Walk African history by the widely renowned historian John Henrik Clarke

Spoken word performances by Best Kept Secret and Shaka

Maafa tribute
A three minute silence in remembrance of the victims of the African holocaust

Interactive panel debates Self-Determination through independent medialdeology and solutions for community empowerment