

Bristol April 2007 to March 2008

Sul'Art

Commemoration Of Slave Trade Abolition

Supported by
The National Lottery
through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Logo for the Heritage Lottery Fund.

Sul'Art 0117 9350067

www.sul-art.com

“...to raise awareness of how the slave trade economy linked the exploitation of white and black”

valuing cultures sharing heritage

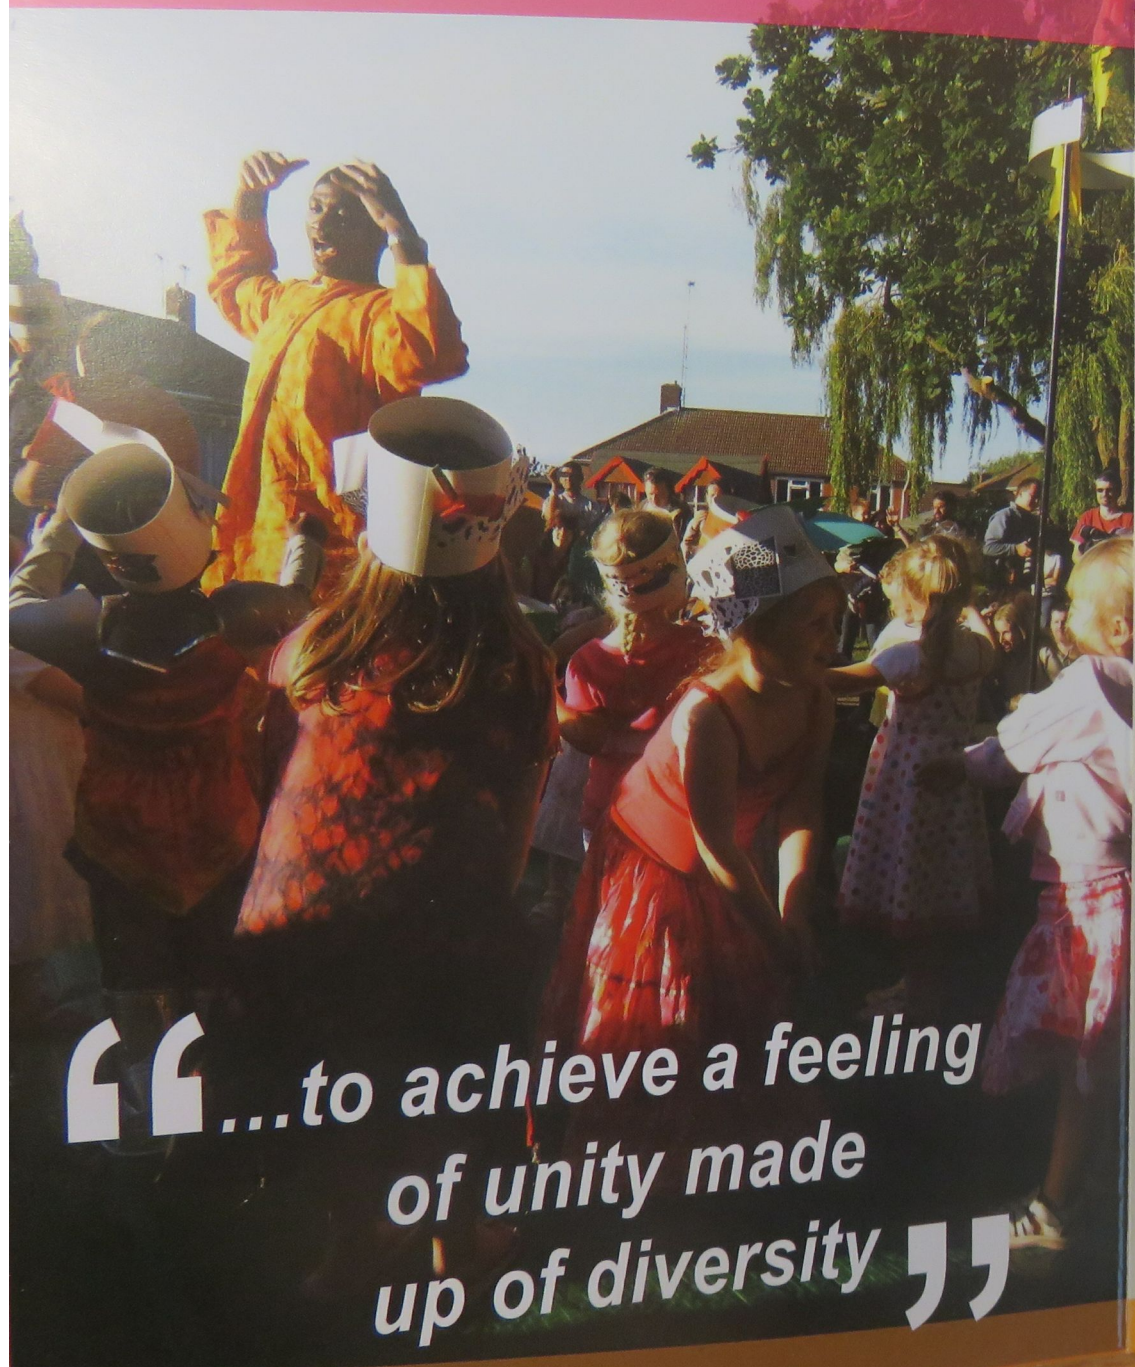

COSTA partners:

Little Hayes Nursery School
Easton Balafon Workshop
Henleaze Junior School
St Judes Djembe Adult Class
The City Academy Bristol
Age Concern Stockwood
Bannerman Road Primary School
St Nicholas de Tolentino Choir
Air Balloon Hill Junior School
Chrysalis (addiction recovery association)
Elmfield School for Deaf Children
Hannah More Primary School
Keralan Indian Dance Group
Barton Hill Primary School and Children's Centre

“ ...to raise awareness of economic injustice today ”

“...to achieve a feeling of unity made up of diversity”

Delivered by Sul'Art

Music and procession
Alphonse Touna, Johnny Mars, Ben Baddoo
King Cotton Band
Drama Hanna Lune
Visual art Gloria Ojulare Sule
Dance Louis Roger Eboa
Animation/ puppets Dee Moxon
Textiles Ruth Ramsey

“...to show the contribution that people of African descent make to British culture”