

Freedom for All

Action of Churches Together in Scotland, working in collaboration with the National Trust for Scotland, invite you to join in a

Commemoration Walk

to mark exactly 200 years from the day the Abolition of the Slave Trade Act was passed in 1807.

Cartoon published by George Cruikshank in 1792 showing John Kimber, a British Slave merchant punishing a slave girl on his ship

Musselburgh - 25th March

14.15 for 14.30

The walk will set out at 14.30 from the riverside gardens beside the "Roman" bridge and will end at the Gardens of Inveresk Lodge. The Lodge was once owned by James Wedderburn who made his fortune as a slave owner in Jamaica.

Inveresk Lodge

For further information please contact
ACTS' office: Tel: 01259 216980;
Email: tommoyes@acts-scotland.org