

A Ligali and Insaka Common Unity Project

African Remembrance Day

Saturday 22 July 2006 12 - 7pm

Hackney Town Hall
Mare St, E8

Admission free

Films | Debates | Performances | Stalls | Cultural Food

Pan African Ribbon of Remembrance, Unity and Self-Determination
For more information, visit www.panafricanribbon.org

A day of positive edutainment dedicated to remembering our ancestors who have fought and died for self-determination, justice and social revolution and the African people and culture lost through enslavement, colonialism and racism.

Film Screenings

The Maafa (Part 1) - Presented by the Ligali organisation

A hard-hitting documentary exploring the legacy of the enslavement and colonisation of Africa and her people

Burning an Illusion - Directed by Menelik Shabazz

A groundbreaking, classic film set in the early 1980's follows the cultural, social and political transformation of a young African British woman in London

Performances

Shaka, Tuggstar and Vuka Afrika

Maafa Tribute

A three minute silence in remembrance of the victims of enslavement, colonialism and racism

Interactive Panel Debates

Are Africans Beautiful?: How far do we view beauty

Family Forum: Supporting Single Parent Families

Maafa 2007: Setting the African agenda

Guest Presentations

Remittance: Giving back to Africa (The AFFORD organisation)

Adoption and Fostering in the African Community

Making a Difference (Hearts to Africa)

Admission free (donations welcome)

First film starts promptly at 12.30pm

Cultural food and refreshments will be available

Pre-registration is advised at www.africanremembrance.co.uk

For further information call 020 8986 1984/ 07868 707 932

Organised by:

Supported by:

Support our media: Sweet 89.4FM, Galaxy 99.5FM, Voice of Africa Radio, Nubiart, GAP-Radio.com, Libradio.com, Pambuzuka.org, Ligali.org, Blacknet, New African Magazine, Nex Generation Magazine, OBE TV and BEN TV